The 2011 TromaDance Film Festival!

This film festival is for YOU! Yes, YOU, the loyal audience who share our love for truly independent art and cinema. Since our founding in 1999, TromaDance has always sought out vibrant and challenging works from around the world, and the selection of films you will see this year is our best yet.

After being warmly welcomed to Asbury Park New Jersey last year, TromaDance continues the fight against gross commercialism and cartelism in the world of cinema. TromaDance is proud to have come to New Jersey, home of the Toxic Avenger and Tromaville, to help Asbury Park's resurgence as the area's premiere sea-side attraction. Above all, TromaDance is grateful for the kind support of film makers, volunteers, the citizens of Asbury Park, and of course, our loyal and idealistic sponsors. We sincerely thank you all for your hard work which has enabled us to keep this a no-charge, free and superlative festival.

TromaDance is proud to be the visionary and loving film festival of the people, by the people, and for the people. NOW, LET'S MAKE SOME ART!

THE TROMADANCE MISSION STATEMENT

Inspired by Trey Parker and founded in 2000 by Lloyd Kaufman, TromaDance is the first film festival wholeheartedly devoted to filmmakers and fans. Unlike every other film festival, TromaDance does not charge filmmakers a fee to submit their films. Entrance to all screenings is free and open to the public. There are no VIP reservations and no preferential treatment of any kind is given regarding admission to films, panels, or parties. The organizers of TromaDance believe films are meant to be seen, especially when it comes to new filmmakers.

Art is not in the corner, it's for the people!
